

Each point is one route snapshot's median of five within-process repeat means; no independent-service confidence interval. $\mathrm{Max}(aD, bS) + c$ selects the pure-D boundary here. Coefficients are local effective costs, not measured HBM bandwidth.